

THE NIGHT PORTERS

IAN JUSTUN
MIKE FREEDMAN
MIKE PELLETIER

Over the last decade, the music industry has evolved to reflect a changing economic landscape, constantly evolving technology and a shift in societal consciousness that continues to challenge the artistic community.

Artists must strive to remain close to the source of their inspiration, to maintain the integrity of their vision while reaching audiences at an emotional and intellectual level.

In the midst of this landscape, three individuals from varied but similar musical backgrounds seized the opportunity to collectively explore what it means to be a songwriter, recording artist and a live performer. What began as friendship, translated into a musical bond that resulted in a focused commitment to original music.

The Night Porters are musical journeymen, performing veterans, composers and improvisers, drawing from a lifetime of influences ranging from Pop, R&B, Jazz, Brazilian and African music.

As comfortable with Marvin Gaye and Stevie Wonder as they are with John Coltrane and Herbie Hancock, The Night Porters' music combines soaring melody, thought-provoking lyrics, jazz harmony and arrangements reminiscent of the beloved and timeless classics of the genre. Encapsulated in all of these elements, is a robust and overflowing spirit of emotion that is captured in each of the 10 original songs.

With the exceptional ability to re-create this live, The Night Porters offer audiences a treat for the senses, with music that is original and new but rooted in their fondest tastes and memories. Each song takes the listener to a different place, places which they will be inclined to return to often.

With years of live performing experience behind them, The Night Porters will delight audiences and be an exceptional contributor to the success of any show, festival or venue. A tall order indeed, one that requires passion, a commitment to artistry and the ability and desire to entertain at the highest level. That is our promise.

The Night Porters are:

Ian Justun-Vocal

Mike Freedman-Guitars

Mike Pelletier-Basses

The Night Porters' first release will be in spring of 2016.